Mirko Trenkner decided to become a chef at the age of 12. He studied cooking in the gourmet French-inspired restaurant of the Berlin Hilton Hotel, then went back to his German roots working all over the country, ending up at the famous Landhaus Flottbek in Hamburg. For the past few years Mirko has been a freelance chef and gastronomic advisor for the CMA, the central marketing organization of German agriculture, giving guests all over the world an insight into German cuisine.

Was given as a gift to a family member. They really enjoyed it.

Few recipes, not any favorites. I wanted to give this as a gift, but I just couldn't, since the recipes weren't anything I want to cook or eat. There are other great German cookbooks around.

I'm going to be trying several of these recipes.

GREAT RECIPES AUTHENTIC TAST

Seems to have some decent recipes.

This is a good cook book, the recipes are easy and the cookies taste good. There are recipe in the cookbook I couldn't find any were else

Not what I expected as it is heavy on recipes for fish.
