Much better than its earlier editions. It is evident that much thought has been given to the placement order of the material to be learned. There is a good variety of practice exercises and also historical and cultural material in each chapter.

Great textbook. I learned out of it and I've taught with it. Focuses on the essential vocabulary for Latin reading and gives good grammatical explanations and activities.

Very pleased with this purchase. I needed it for a Lifelong Learning class and was very pleased to get a used one in VG condition to cut my expense.

Superior Latin text which can be used for multiple levels of ability and age. Excellent!

Better than expected!

THE LATIN TEACHER SAID IT WAS NOT THE BEST LATIN BOOK. SOME OF THE INFORMATION IN THE BOOK HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH LATIN. SHE IS USING THIS BOOK, BECAUSE IT IS THE ONE THE SCHOOL REQUESTED.

very informative and entertaining book. must read for anyone interested in Latin. If you want to learn the mechanics of this language- you must buy it.

I'm the son of a Latin teacher, and I studied Latin in a Catholic seminary for six years and expected to use it my Theology classes - until they stopped teaching Theology in Latin. Now I'm a tutor for homeschoolers. I don't know why parents want their children to learn Latin nowadays. I think it's mostly for religious reasons, and maybe for discipline. Many parents get stuck in "grammar first" programs that teach the rules of Latin without actually teaching the language. "Latin for Americans" is a modern, state-of-the art program that teaches language in interesting, effective, and exciting ways. This book is full of the rich stories of Roman culture and literature and history, and it presents a real challenge to students. I have never seen a more interesting Latin text. For that matter, I have never seen a more interesting textbook for any language - and I've studied Latin, Greek, German, and Spanish. This series makes Latin fun - and sneaks in a solid education alongside.
