Patricia Harris and David Lyon are independent travel writers and photographers, restaurant reviewers and art critics. Their work appears regularly in a wide range of English-language periodicals and in Spanish in the Organization of American States's publication Americas. They are restaurant critics for the Microsoft website Boston Sidewalk, contributors to the Expedia travel website and Madrid correspondents for the Visa Infinite website. They contributed Maine and Massachusetts chapters to Drive Around New England.

We spent a week driving Andalucia and thought this would be a great book. The info included about the sites was interesting, but I had hoped for a lot more PRACTICAL information!! There was very little help about how to get from the main highways to the town center. The parking suggestions were very vague too. It wasn't nearly as helpful as I had hoped
