Book by Bledsoe, Jerry

This book is great. I first saw it at a store back in the 1980's and glanced through it. I purchased recently here on and read it from cover to cover and thoroughly enjoyed it. One of the reasons that I did buy it was that I have traveled the entire highway and have seen many of the places that Mr. Bledsoe talks about but there is still a lot of interesting sights to see even though there have been changes to the highway since the book was first published. I recommend that this book be read and then plan your own trip through North Carolina and be sure to travel a lot of highway 64.

Excellent book. Almost as if you were there while the stories were being written. Awesome rainy day or beach read!
