Nate

Synopsis

99 cents for a limited time I rescued Sabrina from a mafia bloodbath when she was 13. As the new head of the Philly syndicate, I sent her to the best schools to keep her as far away from the life--and me--as possible. It worked perfectly. Until she turned 18. Until she came home. Until I realized that the timid girl was gone and in her place lived a smart mouth and a body that demanded my attention. I promised myself I'd resist her, for her own good. I lied. Nate is a full-length standalone.

Customer Reviews

Nate is all mine and I am not sharing. He is the perfect alpha with the softest underbelly -- truly the perfect bad hero. Sabrina has been fixated on him ever since he took her under his wing. Celia Aaron truly has written an amazing book that has all the fights/tension, sass and wit and holy scorching heat. It has been a long time where I found myself falling for so many of the characters and truly attached to each of them. If you are looking for a perfect alpha bad boy mafia boss romance buy now! And for the record -- I can't stop chuckling any time I see a package of tic tacs lol

I love a good mobster book and this did not disappoint! Nate is a tough as nails bad a$$ who doesn't take any lip from anyone...expect maybe Sabrina. Sabrina is a young girl looking for her true love to finally notice her. Nate is protective of Sabrina, but Sabrina doesn't need his protection, and he will soon find out why. They have a great connection from the beginning. If you love fast paced, action packed, and sexy, dirty reads then pick this book up. I am glad that Nate got his story.

My mind is blown at the sheer amazingness of this book. I've always considered Celia Aaron to be the queen of dark and twisted, and I can totally feel confident in saying she has absolutely slayed two mafia romance stories. Nate picks up right where Dark Protector left off, but it isn't necessary to read Dark Protector first. I would urge you to, as Dark Protector is also a solid 5 star read. Nate is Sabrina's guardian, after he rescues her from being taken yet again. Nate sends her off to boarding school and away from him, simply because he does not want Sabrina close to his life as a mob boss. When Sabrina comes back after graduating, Nate knows for sure he must now push her even further away. Sabrina has grown into a beautiful young woman, and it's hard for Nate to resist her blatant offerings of herself to him. After realizing Sabrina is indeed a woman and not a girl any more, their explosive chemistry puts them in the crosshairs of the bratva and Sabrina's past. Can the two survive all the action? I absolutely loved all the action in this book. Usually, I shy away from books with a lot of combat, but this kept me on the edge of my seat at all times. I also loved both Sabrina and Nate. Sabrina, though young, has been through so much, and it makes her that much more mature. She knows what she wants, and she's not afraid to say it. I actually fell in love with Nate and his witty remarks in Dark Protector, so it's no secret he was my absolute favorite in this story. His one liners are hilarious, and I often was laughing out loud at everything coming out of his mouth. This book was absolute perfection to me, it had everything you could ever want in a romance novel.

4.5 stars Celia, Celia, Celia. You did it again. Blew my mind with lust, passion, blood, and gore. Nate Franco is the boss. He is hard and not afraid to kill if he has to. But he has one weak spot, and that spot is Sabrina. The little girl he saved five years ago and who he has made sure was safe growing up. But Sabrina has grown up to be a beautiful woman, and he is spellbound by her when she suddenly shows up in his house. Sabrina has been away on boarding school for five years. But now she has been accepted into college, and she has turned eighteen, and she is ready to blow Nate's mind. She hasn't thought of any other man for five years, and she wants him, badly. The only problem is that Nate thinks she doesn't fit into the rough and raw lifestyle he is living, but she will show him that she is perfect for him and his way of life. Celia writes a brilliant story. The way she plays with the words turns me on like nothing else. I always think of the word wordgasm, when I read a Celia Aaron book, and she didn't disappoint this time either. She molds the characters into desirable persons, and I absolutely adore both Sabrina and Nate. Sabrina is a sassy young woman, who knows what she wants and isn't afraid to claim it. She is strong without losing her femininity, and she is a fresh breath of air. Nate was hot, with his firm hands and dirty mouth. He feels the responsibility heavy on his shoulders, but we still see glimpses of funny light Nate. The sex scenes were passionate and lustful. I can never get enough when Celia puts her dirty thoughts on paper. She does it to perfection. Nate is, despite the raw and violent mafia world, it's set in, a fairly light story. I'm so in love with the way Celia Aaron can make a raw and violent story into a joyride. The playfulness between the characters mixed with the seriousness of the mob world makes this feel like real entertainment for me. Thanks to the author for this hot and tantalizing advanced copy.
