Customer Reviews

Whoever edited this thing did a really awful job. This item is so poorly written that it is often incomprehensible. A quick once-over by a native English speaker could have avoided many problems. The sights of the city are here, but the descriptions are pretty garbled. Occasional photos give readers a clue about what is being discussed. Typical of the problem is the fact that the introduction states that this is a guide to Istanbul, then it mysteriously switches to Frankfurt. Didn't the publishers even read this sad excuse for a guide before they threw it on the market?
