The youngest in a family of nine children, Julie Gassman grew up in Howard, South Dakota. After college, she traded in small-town life for the world of magazine publishing in New York City. She now lives in southern Minnesota with her husband and their three children. Jorge Santillan got his start illustrating in the children's sections of local newspapers. He opened his own illustration studio in 2005. His creative team specializes in books, comics, and children magazines. Jorge lives in Mendoza, Argentina, with his wife, Bety, and their four dogs, Fito, Caro, Angie, and Sammy.

Love all of these books for my boys, 8 and 11. Easy, fun reads. But real life stories and learning applications. Highly recommend for boys. Good for boys who don't love to read, because in addition to the nice stories, the books are filled with little facts, amazing tidbits, cartoon pictures, real photographs, etc.

It would be nice if these books came in a collection. They are a bit pricey for the length of the book, but if your child is a sports fan and you want to teach them about good sportsmanship, this a great book (and series of books)

My 8 year old loves these books, We have ordered most of them!!!

my son loves to read these over and over

My kids 5 and 8 love these books. Also really good stories about participating and trying ones best with sport.

My son really enjoys these books. He is 6 and he's a big sports fanatic. I'm sure we'll get more.

Thank you

I am a 5th grade special education teacher and I needed some books that would interest a struggling/reluctant reader who was very into sports. He loved it and read it multiple times! I was so happy that he found something that interested him enough to read. It made it easier to assess his learning during readers workshop. I will definitely be buying more of these SI Victory books to add to my classroom library.
