The Ladies' Hand Book Of Fancy And Ornamental Work: Directions And Patterns From The Civil War Era (Dover Books On Knitting And Crochet)

Synopsis

Discover the techniques behind museum-quality pieces and treasured heirlooms with this guide to antique needlework and handcrafts. Originally published in 1859, The Ladies' Hand Book of Fancy and Ornamental Work offers well-illustrated instructions for making the kinds of highly decorated items prized by Victorian homemakers: quilts, doilies, cushions, and ornamental knick-knacks as well as embellishments for collars, hair ornaments, purses, and other items. More than 262 engraved patterns, drawn from English, French, and German sources, encompass a tremendous array of handcrafts: applique, bead work, braiding, crochet, embroidery, knitting, knotting, lace-work, netting, patchwork, quilting, tapestry, tatting, and many other techniques. A rich source of authentic patterns, this volume also provides a historic view of the lives of nineteenth-century women in terms of their pastimes and their forms of creative self-expression.

Customer Reviews

Florence Hartley is also the author of Ladies' Book of Etiquette and Manual of Politeness: A Hand Book for the Use of Ladies in Polite Society.

Interesting book! Would have liked it if there were more patterns in it, but overall very interesting!

Excellent.
