It's pretty good.

I really liked this graphic novel. Well written neighbours of humor, intrigue, magical forces. Would by next book and suggest to others to purchase

Only volume 1 was available in hard print format would of liked other volumes the same way instead of on kindle.

I will definitely buy volume 2 if it is released.

Gregg Rucka is my favorite author since his Wonder Woman run. Love how he empowers women

Loved it. Finished it in one sitting. I think

Much of this seems predictable. The premise is not that unique. But so what! The art is engaging and the dialogue is entertaining as it slowly reveals the gathering back histories of the characters. Only one volume and the world this creates feels familiar and comfortable. I am looking forward to this unfolding.

Love the idea of a witch who's also a detective as I've long held a fascination for both the occult and criminal investigation. Rowan was a perfect coupling of both and easy to identify with. The artwork captures the brooding, shadowy ambience of the story without ever feeling over-the-top or cartoony. Plot was intriguing enough to leave you wanting more without resorting to cliché. I'm looking forward to Volume 2 to see how it all comes together.
