Book by Holzner, Yupa

I've tried a number of recipes from this book and have liked them all. I really like Thai food and have eaten at a number of restaurants in several cities. The recipes in this book fall at about the 80% level in comparison to my enjoyment of professionally cooked Thai food. Thank you Yupa.

After major excavations through my disordered recipe-book to find Yupa Holzner's dog-eared Pad Thai Instructions were met with frustration, I was absolutely delighted to find that Yupa had finally put her amazing recipes to text for the lucky masses --& Me. Several years ago, I was fortunate enough to enroll in a Thai Cooking Class taught by Yupa Holzner. I'm a fluent cook, adept with many types of cuisines, but the dish I am most lovingly asked to bring (in bulk) to events is Yupa Holzner's Pad Thai. Generally, I follow my whims with a recipe, but Mrs. Holzner makes the "Hoy Paloy" of Pad Thai, & this Foodie is forever thwarted from any lesser method. Yupa's other recipes are scrumptiously memorable as well. Amidst my collection, this Thai Cookbook is a must-have!

I have loved thai for years now, ever since my dad started cooking it for the family. Being in college, I have now had to cook for myself. To re-create the thai dishes, i went out to buy this book and am very glad i did. Every recipe i have made from this book has so far been excellent, ESPECIALLY the green curry. I swear it tastes EXACTLY like the restaurant's green curry. I used to eat out at a thai restaurant at least 1-2 times per week, now i never have to when i can create the same dishes for cheaper at home. Thanks Yupa!

Thai food is my favorite, but most of it is impossible for Americans to make on anything like a regular basis because it uses ingredients unavailable in most of the United States. Surprisingly, Ms. Holzner manages to work around that problem very well in this book. SEVERAL recipes in here have become consistent family favorites -- and I'm usually surprised if I even get ONE good lasting recipe out of any cookbook. If this book ever comes back into print, snap up a copy, because you can't have mine!

I have used this cookbook for years. And, for years I've been meaning to post a review. Every recipe I've made is delicious and there have been many. Believe my favorite is Chicken and Red Curry this is an excellent book. Simple and delicious.I have had it for many years and it remains a favorite.
