Customer Reviews

Mary wrote some snippets of Christian living for children. Some of them will hit home for what many children are going through. Because they are like flash fiction and very short, the stories are not very deep, but they are heartwarming moments that feel good to read. The cover is my least favorite part. The pictures are nice, but when combined with the chosen fonts, it is nearly impossible to read anything other than the author's name. Thankfully, it is not the cover that makes this book enjoyable. However, I read all the way through in one sitting and liked the messages she shared. I especially enjoyed the last two stories.
