This is a very light read and poorly written. The title engendered anticipation of a serious work of high value but the resulting product lacks depth and offers little more than psychology 101.

The book is informative and presents a decent beginning point on enhancing our collaboration with others as far as influence is concerned. If you can detect that you're candidly being controlled. My recommendation is to peruse this book and you will find it is your brain or another person that is playing tricks on you. If someone asks me how useful this book is? I say it is a decent place to begin to comprehend the abilities of manipulation. I proudly recommend this book to them.

This is an extremely fascinating and valuable book. These days a great deal of controllers around us, and we truly should be watchful when we meet new individuals, or go into another relationship. This book has given me an essential comprehension of how to know it and how to safeguard it when somebody tries to induce me or impact me. This book has opened my eyes on the colossal impact of control. This is a book that everybody should read!

It made me truly stop and reconsider if I ought to converse with one specific person in my life whom I assume to be controlling me in his favor. I simply discovered I have candidly manipulative ways myself as well and I arrange to transform them when I can. Through this newfound power, you will gain access to a much greater command of your own reality and your own presence in the world, as well as how to effectively move through it.

This is a very interesting and useful book. Nowadays a lot of manipulators around us, and we really need to be careful when we meet new people, or enter into a new relationship. This book has given me a basic understanding of how to know it and how to defend it when someone tries to persuade me or influence me. This book has opened my eyes on the great effect of manipulation. This is a book that everyone should read!

This book is truly awesome and it has lots of information. I am glad since I read a book that showed me how to protect myself from another person's manipulation. Nowadays a ton of manipulators around us, and we truly should be watchful when we meet new persons, or go into another relationship. This book has opened my eyes on the great impact of manipulation.
