Covers the history of the Christian church through its people

Brandon and Mindy Withrow are both bloggers and writers.

I am enjoying reading this set very much. It is definitely written to the middle school age and very easy to understand. I haven't gotten far enough along to notice if there are anything wrong. I love how it puts some of the information in story-like form and other times tells the reader directly.

I just borrowed a copy to read through. I'm very excited about this for my kids and I'm purchasing the whole set. I never learned much of church history outside of the bible and I'm going to learn quite a bit myself. Average chapter is 10 pages and the authors have taken some potentially heavy and unreadable material and made it easy to digest. I think my 10 year old is ready for it, but I think it's best for junior high ages and up. Big thumbs up from us.

Perfect way to get middle schoolers to make connections to Christian history.
