Peanut Butter Friends In A Chop Suey World

Synopsis

Deb Brammer's Peanut Butter Friends in a Chop Suey World is a Christian fiction missionary story set in Taiwan. When Amy's family moves to Taiwan to begin missionary work, she is determined to be a good missionary. But the neighborhood girls laugh at her, and Sunday services at the Chinese church become an ordeal. It seems that the only place she feels comfortable is at the English-speaking school with her peanut butter friends. In this middle-grade book Amy struggles to trust God as she learns how to live with new people and understand a different language.

Customer Reviews

This is a great book that is used as part of the BJU homeschool curriculum for Grade 3. My daughter and I both enjoyed reading it. It is about a girl who moves to Taiwan as a missionary and has to decide how best to serve God, both among her English speaking friends at school, and also her new Chinese neighbors and friends.

My granddaughter and I loved this book. It was fun to discuss.

Great thank you. Fast, easy and efficient trade!

Helpful

My daughter loved this book - she finished in the day it arrived!. Fun to read and has a great message. Arrived quickly and in perfect condition.

Not as interesting as we thought it would be.

Perfect

Great book!
