He lives in New London, New Hampshire.

For a first grandchild! We've bought the entire series of major holidays for all of baby's "firsts". Nicely laminated and just the right amount of words for a young baby. Very satisfied.

I bought this for our autistic son. He loves the simple story & colorful pictures. I love the thick pages because they hold up to him bending the pages & tossing the book around. This was actually our third copy of this book bought to replace a well-loved copy that had lasted for 3 years of rough use.

Grand-daughter loved it.

This is a gift for my great-grandson who is 4 months old. I know his mom and dad will enjoy reading it to him.

I bought this for my niece as she absolutely loves books. While the book is colorful and she loves the pictures, the wording is not what I expected. There are no rhymes, and it is really a book of short, choppy sentences feeling more like awkward fragments. I would suggest looking to other first Christmas books.

Very bright and cute book I read it to my new grandson all the time. He loves the picture Book is very basic and simple. Not a story at all. It is just pictures of common Christmas items and telling the reader what it is Perfect for my daughters first Christmas!
