Customer Reviews

I bought this product for an adult reading student in hopes that he might be able to practice his phonics and reading skills on his own. However, this product fails with an F minus, minus, minus on several levels: First, the CD which costs $36+ for 3 discs, is not viable without purchasing the student hand book which cost another $24+. Although sold separately, neither product descriptions specify that you need the book in order to "attempt" to learn basic phonics skills using the CD. Secondly, the CD does not provide good prompts when transitioning from one track or unit to another and offers no explanation or purpose of each unit (i.e., the student's learning goals for the unit). For example, one of the tracks begins with "Let's sing a song, This Land Is Your Land" then the song just begins playing. There is absolutely no foundation laid for the student as to "why" he or she is singing this song. Further, the speakers move through the tracks and units entirely too fast to allow a burgeoning reader to follow along or keep up, especially if he or she is suppose to be writing in the student hand book while following the CD. However, I believe the worse element of this CD is that the lesson tracks play in a random order even though the lessons are in order from track 1 - 19

(CD #1). For example, track 1 provides the title, author & publisher, etc., then instantly goes to track 19, track 8, track 3, and so on. Therefore it is almost impossible for a student to use this product on his or her own. The student book is "Ok" by itself and you certainly do not need the lousy CD to practice phonics skills. I buy products from often and I'm usually very satisfied with the timeliness of delivery, quality and price of the products. However this product fails all areas except timeliness of delivery... The only learning goal I got from this CD is that the producers were obviously out to turn a buck and not help individuals learn how to read, $60+ dollars wasted, definitely not worth the money.
