Customer Reviews

I am very satisfied with the quality of this Tanakh. The pages are smooth, the typeset is adequate size and legible (even at my age). The "Ma'alot" edition offers "Thumbnails with names of the books written on them". This is particularly helpful when you want to jump between the "Perasha" and the "Haftarah" or, when you are looking for the reference point while studying. I highly recommend this Koren Tanakh!

I have the Stone Tanakh and the Artscroll Interlinear Shema Yisrael and I decided to get a smaller Hebrew Tanakh so I bought this one and it is exactly what I was looking for. All Hebrew, small enough to take it with you but big enough to make reading comfortable, great price and nice layout. I don't find the font to be a problem, however some people don't like Koren because their fonts are not the "original hebrew" fonts but nowadays there is no "original hebrew" font per se, it's been continuously evolving. Overall: I would recommend it to anyone who wants to have a more portable Tanakh.

The book dimensions and the font size provides mobility for the transport and comfort for the reading. I am very pleased with this acquisition.

The text is sharp and legible

Good as described. The classic layout allows to compare without difficulty with other Koren versions of the Ancient Testament. The thumb does its job as in a dictionary.
