Customer Reviews

Felt ripped off, almost like a child's book. Very elementary with no pizaz. Could have downloaded from trip advisor and felt better value. Don't waste your money

This is a print-on-demand booklet, large print, very little useful content. Buyer beware.

This is 88 pages of large font print, with no photographs and no maps. Seven tourist attractions are described but no there are details about how to get to them, the cost if any of visiting, or - with one exception - when they are open. The section on the traditional markets tells you in the first paragraph that the markets are held in May, August and October, and in the second paragraph that they are held in May, July and October.
