Scientific Christian Mental Practice

Synopsis

American writer, educator, theologian, and feminist pioneer EMMA CURTIS HOPKINS (1849-1925) may well be the most important woman in the history of religion in the United States. Influenced by Mary Baker Eddy and her "Christian Science," Hopkins developed the more metaphysical philosophy of New Thought, an early "New Age" outlook that encouraged its adherents to tap the latent powers of their potent minds. Known as "the teacher of teachers," Hopkins inspired her students, many of whom went on to become influential leaders of the New Thought movement, to give full expression to their creative genius. In this 1888 book, considered by many her masterpiece, Hopkins explores the wisdom of Jesus Christ from twelve different perspectives, all of which demonstrate, in their own unique ways, how we all hold within us the mystical energy to transform ourselves, our lives, and the world itself for the better, and to fill our hearts with the joy of the infinite. This book published in 1888 has been reformatted for the Kindle and may contain an occasional defect from the original publication or from the reformatting.

Customer Reviews

Since I am a new "student" of Christian Science, this book has been very helpful in several ways:1 I have learned by reading this book, how to pray more effectively and mindfully.2 I like the way Ms Hopkins places in all caps GOOD, MIND as they refer to God's goodness and Mind. When she places good or mind in lower case. she means human mind or human good.3 Although this book was written many years ago, I found it very easy to understand as I read it with both my mind with my soul!4 I found this book so meaningful, I will be purchasing more eBooks (Kindle) by Emma Hopkins. Highly recommend this book!

In the latter 1970's, while in my first pastorate, I encountered the author Emma Curtis Hopkins. It struck a note of truth that excited me; was beyond my understanding; and most assuredly beyond the understanding of my congregation. In the years since, after reading a number of Ms. Hopkins' books, especially "Scientific Christian Mental Practice," I've come to believe there are two kinds of truth: the first small letter "truth" being what I now call "world truth" and "TRUTH" which is the same as God to me. In a quote Ms. Hopkins writes: "It is recognized good that makes us good enough to show goodness. The great wisdom-power within you is ready to spring up, fed with the increasing principle, when you see wisdom expressed in a book, or a man, or, even if you see for a second the wisdom expressed by the flies and the spiders in your house." If you get to know the author, read and perhaps re-read her works, I believe you (as did I) will become a new person.

This classic New Thought book is one I return to periodically. I am happy to be able to have it on my Kindle so that Emma can travel with me in my large and light-weight library. She was the teacher of the 3 main founders of the New Thought groups back in the late 1800's up until the 1920's. She was an amazing woman, ahead of her time. What a powerful and clear lady she was.

The power & presence of Spirit is still being revealed through the pages of Emma Curtis Hopkins' work. I'm enjoying & living with this book!

She's a bit pedantic, but brilliant
