Meet Diana, Princess of the ~~s~~, and discover how she becomes the amazing Wonder Woman!

I was really excited about this book, because it starts with WWs backstory as a princess. I bought it and a WW costume for my princess-obsessed 3-year old niece. She LOVES it, and has started playing "super hero" a lot more. (I think it's fine that she loves playing princess, but I like that this book gives her the idea that princesses can be tough if they want to!)

The kids that I work with like it, even though it is Wonder Woman (they are all males so....), but I enjoy reading it to them and having them read it to me. They like it just because it is superhero related. Maybe after that Wonder Woman movie releases, they may like it more.

My daughter loves Wonder Woman and we got this book awhile back for her to "read." She can't quite read yet, but she loves the graphics and makes up her own story in between us reading it to her. A nice one.

I bought this for one of my nieces because she's into that Disney Princess nonsense. I wanted to show her that girls could be Superheros too, instead of just some vacuous eye candy. Well, Wonder Woman IS eye candy, but she is full of action packed feminist substance. I have the feeling this book went unread and tossed aside, much like my hopes for my niece developing into an empowered woman.

Great origin story. My 5 yr old daughter loves reading this to us. She loves the idea she is a warrior princess & uses team work with other heroes. We only had to help her with a few large words. I really like that the art style is age appropriate and isn't as sexualized as some other Wonder Woman/DC books. Highly recommend!

I Am Wonder Woman is an I Can Read book that is made for young children who is learning to read and is features the popular DC Comics Superheroine. In this book, Princess Diana learns of the dangers in the world and train to become the world's protector. Armed with her bulletproof bracelets, her magic Lasso of Truth, and her Invisible Jet, Diana, now Wonder Woman, begins her quest for justice. With the help of her friends Superman and Batman, Wonder Woman learn how to engage in hand to hand combat. I really like how the writer and artist stayed true to the classic DCU Superheroes(Post-Crisis and Pre-New 52)by keeping WW's classic costume, even if it looks like a amalgam of WW's costumes from 1985, 1992 and 2001. This book is perfect for fans of Wonder Woman: America's Guardian Angel!

This has become our little girl's favorite book! She requests it read most nights and has now memorized the story so given a picture to prompt she can say she is "reading to herself." The story isn't very complex so it can get repetitive but it's still very cute and I love that her favorite super hero is front and center instead of delegated to a sidekick part.

purchased as a gift and the child enjoys having it read to her.
