Book Of Mormon - Revised Authorized Version

Synopsis

First published in 1830, the Book of Mormon is regarded as scripture by Community of Christ members and followers of the Latter-day Saint movement around the world. The Book of Mormon chronicles stories of ancient peoples migrating from the Near East to the Americas, their beliefs and instructions, wars and contentions, and revelations about righteous living. It testifies of Jesus Christ's appearance in the Americas after his resurrection where he taught people about salvation, God, and peaceful living in harmony with biblical writings. For those who hold this scripture sacred, the text supports the Biblical message that Jesus Christ is the Living Word of God.

Customer Reviews

Reading the Book of Mormon in this format has been an incredible experience. It has allowed me to understand the flow of the book and to relate more to the characters in the story. I definitely recommend this book.

My Favorite Book.I can finally read and use WhisperSync.

I did read this & didn't understand all of it. But, it did give me a greater understanding of the Mormon religion which is what I wanted.

Another testament of Jesus Christ and a companion manual to the Holy Bible. Like two sticks together, manuals for living.

Very interesting for studying other religions and for Latter Day Saints.

I know this book to be true and to be the gospel of Jesus Christ of whom all good things come from

It is so much easier to read! Thank you

Just can't get into it. Will stick with Holy Bible for spiritual guidance.
