I bought this for a friend for Christmas and didn't know she had pinned it on Pinterest - she said it is amazing! Definitely helped improve a few things in their marriage. She advised it brought them closer in ways they didn't know they were apart, helped them close some things that were ongoing, and address some things they didn't know were issues. Per my married friends, they definitely recommend this book!

This book is a year of weekly devotions. Its great because during the week till the next weekly devotion you can re-read it and allow his words to sink into your Spirit and reveal how you can make changes to how you are handling situations. Great Devotional Book!

I love it. I do wish it had a prayer to be offered at the end of each devotional. So, I'm using the "Thirty One Prayers for My Wife" by Aaron and Jennifer Smith to complement it. Great Devotional resource.

I highly recommend this devotional. The chapters are short and scripture based, easy to read, informative and helpful for couples to study together or separately, giving a refreshing view and perspective on marriage! We read it much quicker than suggested.

This is a good book, but not exactly what I was looking for. My husband and I will be married two years this year and I'm just looking for a weekly devotional we can do together... This book seems to be focused more towards couples who have been married a long, long time and have issues. Maybe a few years down the road it'll be more useful.

Read my devotional book with my wife every morning and evening. Happy marriage happy home.

These are so good! My fiance and I enjoy them so much that we can't wait to only read them once a week!

Not a bad book, however, I wish the devotions would include questions to lead to discussion points between couples
