Customer Reviews

Great book and really good for children to learn the history of what happened in the United States in the civil rights movement and hope another one comes out to teach about slavery in the United States so children can learn

Fun use of cartoons and conversation bubbles heighten interest for students. The book can be read in small sections because of the way the author organized the text.

Bought it for my kids, had my daughter read it to me last week, we both loved it! Great information in it!

Great book, presented events well on a kids level.

Don't know yet, bought it for the grandchildren for Christmas.

Loved it
