Driving In The UK: A Guide For Visitors

Synopsis

This is the essential knowledge you need to know if driving in the UK. The book covers not only road signs but details of speed cameras and parking, refuelling and choice of hire car. I have used my experience as a driver trainer with 30 yrs experience and as a Police advanced driving instructor to give you the information you need to keep safe. Information such as help in emergencies, what to do and where to go for extra help and advice on route planning times and distances, even the radio stations you need to find out delays on your travels. This book is essential if driving in the UK.

Customer Reviews

Very helpful; felt like I could drive in the UK, and I did!

Used this book when I was visiting the U.K. this past July. I came in extremely useful.

Misleading as I thought it will have suggested scenic routes and maps.
