Hope Larson is the New York Times bestselling author of six graphic novels, notably her graphic novel adaptation of Madeleine L'Engle's A Wrinkle in Time (Farrar, Straus and Giroux), and co-creator of BOOM! Studios' Goldie Vance. Forthcoming projects include two graphic novels, Compass South and Knife's Edge (Farrar, Straus & Giroux) and, starting in July 2016, a reimagining of DC Comics' Batgirl. Her short comics have been published by the New York Times, Vertigo, and in several anthologies, including Flight and DC Comics' Gotham Academy Yearbook.

As a hardcore Nancy Drew fan and late bloomer into the world of comics and graphics novels, I wholeheartedly recommend Goldie Vance. This is the second volume chronicling Goldie's adventures as she solves mysteries out of the hotel that she and her father work at. While the first volume would, obviously, help you understand what is going on, I'm not sure I would call it a 100% pre-requisite. The art is absolutely gorgeous and I found myself taking longer than necessary to appreciate certain panels. Everything about this volume, from the storyline to the artwork, is absolutely awesome. If you are a mystery-lover nervous about taking the plunge into the world of comics, this is a great place to get your feet wet.

I love this series! Perfect for Nancy Drew fans and Lumberjanes fans.

If you're a fan of Lumberjanes, but want something with fewer supernatural elements and a few more Nancy Drew-esk mysteries, you'll enjoy Goldie Vance. This is such a fun series with great characters and great diversity that's set in Florida (in the 60s? possibly, I'm not sure) at the hotel that Goldie's dad owns. Boom! Box continues to put out fantastic content, and as always I enjoyed every page. This is a perfect series for middle-grade readers but also still great for young adults and adults.
