Customer Reviews

The characters were great and the storyline was fun and engaging but the writing was only OK which was a disappointment for me. The writing seemed stilted and a little disconnected. But even with these small problems, the book was still fun and clean and I'm glad I read it. I'm looking forward to the rest of the series.

I especially love how each story intertwines with the others as well as prepares us for the next story...sets up the next story. I am not ready to move on from anyone in the SinclairFamily yet!

She's even badly hurt by last boyfriend, he didn't think he was ready to settle down. but his brothers wedding and the maid of honor change his mind.

I'm loving the stories of the Sinclair family and the continued story of Cam & Lana is so very sweet.

As always this book was great. Love all Debra's books. Cannot wait until the next one. She is one of my favorite authors.

I was wondering how you were going to work out a Texas story when the rest of the family lives somewhere else. Can't wait to see how the other brothers fare.

Great writer and great book.

Love Debra Clopton and the series
