Customer Reviews

Quinn has remarkable insight into the way he shows up in the world and great ability to describe a well examined life. Hung Like a Seahorse is a blend of humor and a careful processing of trauma which should be read by anyone in a helping profession.

Quinn Alexander Fontaine's compassion for all living things and their struggle is the drumming heartbeat beneath this message to love ourselves, as we are. To know that we are enough. Quinn's description of feeling trapped in a body that doesn't match his gender, in a time and place where he doesn't yet have a name for what he is experiencing, or anyone to turn to, helped me to understand the experience of being born transgender. His message is universal and full of timeless truths for anyone who is struggling with releasing their past, surviving trauma and embracing a life filled with love and intention.

It is hard to imagine the intensity of an internal struggle that makes up the life of just one individual. Quinn Fontaine shares, with such honesty, the life altering obstacles that he overcame to become the trans man that he is today. I believe that this book could saved lives. I hope it does.

Having known Quinn through every faze of his existence, as Kathleen, and as Quinn, I can say this is as candid as it gets. I too have suffered through my own kind of traumas and mental illness challenges. I was amazed as I read this book that we both have ended up on the same path at this point in our lives, though we came through such different paths to get here. For anyone struggling to find the me they were meant to be, before life got hard, this is a really great guide to starting the way home. Quinn reminds us to play, to love, and most importantly learn to embrace our truth. A must read for anyone with young people in their lives. Live, Laugh, Love, and read this book.

If Hung Like a Seahorse is any where as funny and heartcentered as the man who wrote it (which of course it is!), readers are in for a unique and powerful memoir. Quinn Alexander Fontaine is an inspiration!

Best read this year. Fontaine speaks his truth and, as we take the journey with him guided by his wit, wisdom and energetic leadership, we too are invited to become free -- free to be uniquely, genuinely and safely ourselves. Fontaine shows the way, walks by our side and entertains us the whole way. Being consciously committed & present has big payoffs, and Quinn proves that. I am already looking forward to his next book.

Quinn's transformation story is heartfelt, honest, and inspirational. He doesn't sugarcoat the challenges he's faced as a survivor of abuse and addiction or as a trans man, but he uses humor to deliver what is ultimately an uplifting and enjoyable read.

Quinn is clever, witty, and charming. The book is insightful and cleverly written with an appeal to all. A pleasure to read!
